JUDGMENT

No representation on either sides. But on going through Ext.P11 order, I do not find any infirmity about the same in which the learned Munsiff has taken the view that measuring the properties on the basis of the litho plan without any side measurements will not serve any useful purpose, I do not find any warrant to interfere with Ext.P11 in the supervisory jurisdiction of this court under Article 227 of the Constitution. But at the same time since there is no representation on either sides, the Writ Petition will stand dismissed for default.
